$1,800 + Air

Travel to historic Greece, where thousands of refugees have fled. We'll show kindness through the provision of shoes and speak words of hope and encouragement to people who have found their lives changed.

During this “voluntourism” trip, you will be able to serve those in need while also touring other areas of Greece. The team will also travel to other islands to experience the beauty of this country.

“Each one of you should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God’s grace in its various forms.” 1 Peter 4:10
